Rev. Francis E. Gigol, Professor of Theology in St. Joseph's Seminary, at Dunwoodie, near Yonkers, was given his citizen papers to-day by County Judge Platt at White Plains. The priest was accompanied to court by Rev. Timothy P. Holland, another professor, who swore that he had known him over five years. Rev. Father Gigol said that he was born at Indre, France, in May, 1859, and arrived in New York on July 27, 1885. He declared his intention of becoming a citizer of the United States on April 14.

They Know the Game.

Just to show that they know how to bow! as well as how to make and sell alleys and balls the officials and employees of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, members of the bowling club that meets for practise at the White Elephant, put up two 1,000 scores in a match contest between two teams captained by Charles Miller, general manager, and A. A. Troescher, treasurer of the company. The teams and scores:

Miller team—Dwyer, 22R Dumas, 22S; Harmon, 176; Koehn, 183; Miller, 227. Total, 1,082.

Epidemic of Robbyries. Epidemic of Robberies.

This is borne out by the records of the East Twenty-second street station, where in the past fifteen days, Capt. Hussey has received reports of sixty-five hold-ups and robberles. Since the first of the year 125 of these cases have been reported in Capt. Hussey's precinct.

On Jan. 1 six places were robbed. Many burglaries have occurred in the visinity of Gramercy Park. On Jan. 12 the residence of Mrs. J. E.
